Press Release 10/26/2008

The most important game of the day between Russia and Ukraine ended with quick draw on behalf of Russia in order to maintain her score difference to the second teams. The «battle» for the second place still continues between the teams of Ukraine, Germany, Poland and Spain.

The other teams also try to perform their best during the 13th Chess Olympiad for Blind and Visually Impaired players that is being held at Crete island.

Today's round results, statistics per chessboard, photos and next round's pairings follow.
